Selling Points

First telenovela themed visual novel

We're bringing all the surreal elements from latin telenovelas to the VN genre!

Be prepared for all the comedy, slaps, drama, plot twists and absurd situations of a novela, mixed with great art and fun story to follow!

Character popularity system

Depending on your actions, some characters may end up getting more screen time. The audience responds better to likable characters, so the most popular ones may get extra scenes or dialogues, while the unlucky ones may end up killed or replaced.

Customize your character

You get a plethora of clothes, hairs, colors, accessories and even body types to choose from!

Create the perfect protagonist to star in your dream telenovela!

5 dateable characters

What's a good telenovela without some romance?

Each character offers a new plot line to discover. You'll get a different part of the mystery by seeing each character story!

5 different endings

Your choices through the novela shape the story, culminating in 5 vastly different endings.

Heroes become villains, villains become heroes, people return from death... it's a telenovela, everything can happen!

Over 15 hours of story

This game is very rich in content, dialogue and replay value.

Every little choice matters and may unlock a secret that you wouldn't get in another playthrough.

Who we are?

In 2019, Megalixir Games was founded by two developers who previously worked on other 10 launched games and decided to focus on visual novels for multiple platforms.

After a successful search, we found great artists and developers to join our team and make our games a reality! Our team is small, but it's filled with talented and passionate people.

The goal was to draw new players who are usually not into heavy-text games with a correct balance between story, comedy, interaction and user experience, while also catering to the hardcore players. We love both playing and making Visual Novels!

This game is made in collaboration with RCK games that are our programming and porting partners.

Let's keep writing our story together!

Ask

What we're looking for is mainly:

- Porting. We would like to port the game in Nintendo Switch and Ps4.
- Publishing and marketing partner. We could greatly benefit from a publishing partner to help us distribute our game.
- Localization. Translation and localization into different languages would greatly expand the reach of Destino Indomable.
